

SYLLABUS STATEMENT ON ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

It is recommended that the following information on Academic Integrity be included in the syllabus for each course.

Academic integrity represents one of the most essential elements of the teaching and learning process. All members of the OTC community are expected to fulfill their academic obligations through honest and independent effort. By submitting coursework to your instructor as an OTC student, you pledge that the work is truly your own.

Violations of academic integrity—which include but are not limited to cheating, collusion, plagiarism, and other forms of academic misconduct—damage your personal character and thwart your instructors' ability to promote your learning. As an OTC student, you are responsible for knowing and following the College's policies and procedures regarding academic integrity. These guidelines and more information related to academic integrity are available in the Student Handbook, on the OTC Academic Integrity Web page, and in College Policy 5.15.

The College recognizes that academic integrity is complex and can be confusing. Therefore, you are obligated to review these information sources carefully and to seek needed clarification from your instructor concerning questions of collaborative work, citation of sources, or other issues related to academic integrity.
