Good morning!

As we look to wrap up the Spring 2024 semester during this busy week, here are a couple of reminders:

Faculty/Classroom Support: If you wish to do so, please complete the Faculty/Classroom Support feedback form no later than tomorrow (5/14) at 5 p.m. Again, many thanks to all who have taken the time to share ideas about how the college might better support faculty. Much of the summer will be dedicated to using this feedback to develop better institutional guidance and support.

Spring Concert: Join us tomorrow (5/14) night at 7 p.m. at the Spangler Concert Hall at Drury for Pure Imagination*, the OTC Choirs Spring Concert. Our choirs never disappoint, especially when set against the backdrop of a beautiful spring evening.

This is my last Provost's Notes for the 2023-2024 academic year. As we've discussed, some of us have found it taxing in many respects; however, Commencement is coming, and it serves as an inescapable reminder that even though students can be the source of some of our greatest challenges, they are also the source of our greatest joy.

Have a smooth finals week and a restful summer.

Tracy
