

OTC Construction Trades Department

Program Learning Outcomes

Construction Technology – CST

1. Demonstrate behaviors that contribute to professional success including time management, teamwork, and communication with both industry professionals and customers.
2. Put into practice the cognitive and physical skills necessary to work safely in the construction industry.
3. Accurately perform construction related math.
4. Identify, choose, and correctly utilize equipment, materials and tools currently used in the construction industry.
5. Display skill in interpreting plans and estimating job materials.
6. Utilize craft skills to meet requirements outlined in job specification documentation.
7. Demonstrate safety practices common to the construction trade.