Note: This online degree is typically pursued by workplace-bound students that take less than 10 credit hours per semester. By taking less than 10 credit hours per semester, ALL students are charged in-state tuition rates plus distance fee. If students take 10 credit hours or more credit hours per semester and live in a "Gorilla Edge" state (Missouri, Arkansas, Oklahoma, or Texas) and in counties not included under the "Gorilla Advantage" program, students pay 150% in-state tuition plus distance fee. All other out-of state students taking 10 credit hours or more per semester would be charged at the full-time, non-resident tuition rate plus distance fees. Distance fees are currently $18.00 per credit hour (as of July 15, 2013).
